The Settlement of Comanche County, Texas

THE SETTLEMENT OF COMANCHE COUNTY, TEXAS

WHEN THE HAMS AND MARTINS MOVED TO THE "WILD AND WOOLEY WEST", THERE WERE BEAR, PANTHER, DEER, ANTELOPE AND BUFFALO IN THE AREA, AND A GROWTH OF MIXED TREES, AND WONDERFUL SOIL. COMANCHE COUNTY, IS ABOUT 1350 FEET ABOVE SEA LEVEL ALL OVER THE COUNTY, EXCEPT IN THE SOUTHWEST CORNER WERE IT CLIMBS TO 1850 FEET. ONCE IT WAS LEVEL LIMESTONE PLAIN DRAINED BY ANCIENT RIVERS, AND THE LAND WAS CREATED WHEN IT ROSE FROM THE DRAINAGE OF THE ANCIENT COMANCHE SEA.

THIS LAND WAS A FAVORITE SPOT OF THE INDIANS, BECAUSE OF THE PLENTIFUL WILD ANIMALS, BERRIES, NUTS, FRUITS, AND HONEY FROM THE "BEE TREES". THE INDIANS DIDN'T MAKE LIFE EASY FOR THE FIRST WHITE SETTLERS. THERE WERE SO FEW SETTLERS IN THE AREA, AND THIS ISOLATION MADE IT VERY EASY FOR THE INDIANS TO RIDE IN AND STEAL THEIR HORSES. THE COMANCHE INDIAN MEASURED THEIR WEALTH IN HORSES. THE HORSES WERE USED TO TRADE WITH THE NORTHERN INDIANS.

TO BUILD THEIR HOMES THE SETTLERS CUT SCRUB OAKS FOR LUMBER, BECAUSE THE CLOSEST MILLED LUMBER WAS IN CORYELL COUNTY ABOUT 60 OR SO MILES AWAY. MOST OF THE SUPPLIES NEEDED TO MAINTAIN LIFE IN THE FRONTIER HAD TO BE SHIPPED IN. MANY TIMES ONE MAN WOULD TRAVEL TO THE NEAREST STORE TO BUY SUPPLIES FOR HIMSELF AND HIS NEIGHBORS. IT WAS TO MUCH OF A RISK FOR TO MANY MEN TO LEAVE THE AREA AT ONE TIME. ROADS WERE FEW, AND THE ONLY ONE THAT TRAVELED NEAR COMANCHE COUNTY WAS A MILITARY ROAD THAT RAN FROM FORT GATES IN CORYELL TO FORT PHANTOM HILL NEAR WHAT IS NOW ABILENE. THE ROAD PASSED THROUGH COMANCHE COUNTY, AND WAS KNOWN AS THE "CORN TRAIL". WITH THE PRESENCE OF THE ARMY IT ENCOURAGED MORE AND MORE PEOPLE TO MOVE WEST. THE CIVIL WAR PUT A STOP TO THIS MIGRATION INTO COMANCHE COUNTY. MOST OF THE MEN COME FROM THE SOUTH, SO THEY JOINED THE CONFEDERATE ARMY. THIS LEFT ONLY A FEW TO DEFEND THEMSELVES AND THEIR HOMES AGAINST THE INDIANS.

IN THE SPRING OF 1861 INDIANS CAME INTO THE COUNTY, AND STOLE EVERY HORSE, WHICH LEFT THE SETTLERS WITHOUT EVEN TEAMS TO PREPARE THE FIELDS FOR CROPS. THEY SCATTERED THE LIVESTOCK, AND BEGAN KILLING MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN. FIVE WAGONLOADS OF FLOUR ACCOMPANIED BY ARMED GUARDS FROM BELL COUNTY WHERE THE ONLY THING THAT SAVED THE PEOPLE FROM STARVATION. THE MARTINS HAD MANY RELATIVES IN BELL COUNTY, BUT IT IS NOT KNOWN WHO GOT THE SUPPLIES INTO THE COUNTY. THE THREAT FROM THE INDIANS GREW BETWEEN THE YEARS OF 1863 AND 1866, AND MANY FAMILIES MOVED AWAY.

MANY OF THE SETTLERS HUNTED WILD HOGS, AND SOLD THEM TO NEAR BY COMMUNITIES. THE TEXAS LONGHORN CATTLE ROAMED ALL OVER THE COUNTRYSIDE, SO THE SETTLERS DROVE THEM TO LOUISIANA. LIFE WAS HARD, BUT THEY SURVIVED, AND COMANCHE GREW. BY 1874 COMANCHE WAS THE MODEL OF A COWMAN AND RANCHER'S TOWN, WITH A POPULATION OF ABOUT ONE THOUSAND PEOPLE. COMANCHE HAD SEVEN SALOONS, AND THE MEN FOUND RELAXATION IN CARD GAMES, HORSE RACING AND IN BILLIARDS. THE WOMEN KEPT THEMSELVES BUSY WITH HOUSEHOLD DUTIES, CHURCH SOCIALS AND QUILTING BEES.

COMANCHE, COMANCHE COUNTY, TEXAS AS SEEN 05 DECEMBER 1986

JOHN DUNCAN GAVE 240 ACRES OF LAND ON THE INDIAN CREEK FOR THE CITY OF COMANCHE IN 1858. IT SITS IN THE MIDDLE OF THE COUNTY, & MADE A GOOD SITE FOR THE COUNTY SEAT. THE COMMISSIONER'S COURT ACCEPTED MR. DUNCANS OFFER OF THE LAND, AND THE TOWN WAS ESTABLISHED IN 1858. THE FIRST COURTHOUSE WAS A "PICKET HOUSE". THE LOGS FOR IT WERE CUT AND SPLIT ON THE SITE. THE LOGS WERE SET IN A DITCH, AND THEN COVERED WITH BOARDS, WHICH WERE ALSO MADE ON THE SITE.

PICTURE ON BOTTOM: FOURTH COURTHOUSE BUILT IN TOWN OF COMANCHE SINCE ITS ORGANIZATION IN 1859. ONE BURNED DOWN, AND TWO WERE TORN DOWN TO MAKE ROOM FOR NEW BUILDING. THE PRESENT COURTHOUSE WAS ERECTED IN 1941. THE BUILDING WAS CONSTRUCTED FROM NATIVE STONE FROM HUGH LACY FARM AT LOGANS GAP.

IN ITS YOUNG YEARS COMANCHE WAS THE SUPPLY CENTER FOR TEXAS FARMS AND RANCHES. THE TOWN WAS INCORPORATED IN 1873.

IN ORDER TO FARM OR RANCH SETTLERS HAD TO CLEAR THE LAND OF TREES AND STUMPS. THIS WAS CALLED "PATCH" FARMING. IT PROVIDED FOR THE SETTLERS NEEDS, BUT LEFT ONLY A SMALL AMOUNT FOR SELLING. ROADS WERE FEW, & DURING THE RAINY SEASON THE TRAILS WOULD SOON HAVE THEMSELVES COVER WITH OVERGROWTH AGAIN. THIS MEANT THERE WAS VERY LITTLE COMMERCE.

COMANCHE, COMANCHE COUNTY, TEXAS AS SEEN 05 DECEMBER 1986

COMANCHE COUNTY, TEXAS IS KNOWN AS THE CROSS TIMBERS REGION, & WHEN THE "HAM" & "MARTIN" FAMILIES SETTLED HERE IT WAS TRULY THE WILD WILDERNESS, WITH WILD ANIMALS & UNFRIENDLY INDIANS. THE COMANCHE INDIANS ROAMED FREELY, & MADE LIFE MISERABLE FOR THE FIRST SETTERS IN THIS AREA. THEY CONSIDERED THIS THEIR DOMAIN, & AT FIRST WOULD STEAL HORSES & LIVESTOCK, THEN THEY STARTED KILLING THE MEN, WOMEN & CHILDREN.

TOP PICTURE IS OF THE SIGN SHOWING THE CITY LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF COMANCHE.

BOTTOM PICTURE IS OF THE OLD COMANCHE BANK AT 134 CENTRAL AVENUE, IN THE VERY CENTER OF TOWN.

INDIAN RAIDS CONTINUED IN COMANCHE COUNTY FROM ITS EARLY SETTLEMENT IN 1856, UNTIL 1875, WHEN FINALLY FEDERAL TROOPS ROUNDED UP THE LAST FEW BANDS OF RENEGADES AND PLACED THEM ON A RESERVATION AT FORT SILL, OKLAHOMA UNDER MILITARY CONTROL. "A COMANCHE" IS THE SPANISH SPELLING OF THE UTE INDIAN WORD KOMANTCIA, WHICH MEANT "ENEMY" OR "ONE ALWAYS WANTING TO FIGHT". A COMANCHE IS A NORTH AMERICAN PLAINS INDIAN OF SHOSHONEAN STOCK, RANGING BETWEEN KANSAS AND NORTHERN MEXICO, NOW THEY ARE IN OKLAHOMA.

THE CALF PATH

by Samuel Foss

One day thru the primeval wood
A calf walked home, as good calves should:
But made a trail, as all calves do.
Since then 300 years have fled,
And I infer the calf is dead.
But still, he left behind his trail
And thereby hangs my mortal tale.

The trail was taken up next day
By a lone dog, that passed that way.
And then, a wise bell weathered sheep
Pursued the trail, o'er vale and steep,
And drew the flocks behind him too
As good bell weather always do.
And from that day, o'er hill and glade
Thru those old woods, a path was made.

And many men wound in and out,
And dodged, and turned, and bent about,
And uttered words of righteous wrath
Because 'twas such a crooked path.
But still they followed, do not laugh
The first migrations of that calf.

This forest path became a lane
That bent, and turned, and turned again.
This crooked lane became a road
Where many a poor horse with his load
Toiled on beneath the burning sun
And traveled some three miles in one.
And thus a century and a half
They trod the footsteps of that calf.

The years passed on in swiftness fleet,
The road became a village street.
And this, before men were aware,
A city's crowded thoroughfare.
And soon the central street was this of a renowned metropolis.
And men, two centuries and a half
Trod the footsteps of that calf.

Each day a 100 thousand route
Followed the zig-zag calf about
And o'er his crooked journey went
The traffic of a continent.
A 100 thousand men were led
By one calf, near three centuries dead.
They followed still his crooked way
And lost 100 years per day.
To well established precedent.

A moral lesson this might teach
Were I ordained, and called to preach.
For men are prone to go it blind
Along the calf paths of the mind,
And work away from sun to sun
To do what other men have done.
They follow in the beaten track,
And out, and in, and forth, and back,
To keep the paths that others do

They keep the paths a sacred groove
Along which all their lives they move.
But how the wise old wood gods laugh
Who saw that first primeval calf.
Ah, many things this tale might teach,
But I am not ordained to preach.

The League is regularly titled to John Gilbert of date June 5th, 1835.

There is no deed of record in this county out of John Gilbert. Our records were destroyed in November 1875.

In 1870, the sheriff of this county made a Sheriff's deed to Gilbert Mackecnney, conveying all the interest of John Jackson in the League. We do not know what interest Jackson owned in the League.

In 1877, the Tax Collector sold the entire League at Tax Sale to Gilbert Mackechney, who immediately put tenants on the League. The Tenancy is recorded February 6th, 1877 and has been on record ever since.

On February 6th, 1889, persons purporting to be the heirs of John Gilbert represented by Attorney, Silas M. Johnson, who now lives in Beaumont, Texas, filed a suit against John Machechney, Legatte under the will of Gilbert Mackechney, for this league of land. Amelia Brichta, Cecilia Twonsend and her husband, Martin Townsend, Augustus Brichta, G. C. Osborn and the city of Austin, Texas intervened. Judgement of the District Court of this County was entered apparently by agreement in which the plaintiffs, heirs of John Gilbert, recovered one-third of the league to be taken off the East end. The intervenors recovered 1100 acres in the Northwest corner of the League, and the defendant, Mackechney, recovered the remainder of the League.

John N. Gilbert and others, then filed a suit against John H. Broocks, Jr., on the one-third of a League awareded ~~February 4th, 1890, resulted in a partition of the one~~ in the above judgement to the Gilbert heirs. This suit dated February 4th, 1890, resulted in a partition of the one-third League. The defendant, Broocks, recovering one-half of the one-third league, and the plaintiffs recovering the other one-half which was partitioned into six portions of 123 acres each. Lot no. 5, of the portion recovered by the Gilbert heirs was awarded to the heirs of Nancy Ham, a daughter of John Gilbert who married Joel Hamm. Said Lot no. 5 consisting of 123 acres, being awarded to Julia Vickers, Mary Arthur, Annie Chapman Amanda Hamm and William Hamm. From our information the only other child of Nancy and Joel Hamm, to-wit, john G. Hamm, died October 30th, 1868. Do not know whether he left issue or not.

In 1902, Julia Vickers, Mary Arthur, Annie Chapman and Amanda Hamm conveyed 4/5 of lot no. 5 to J. A. Watson.

In november 1918, J. D. Hamm conveyed to L. E. King all interest in the John Gilbert League as an heir of William A. Hamm and M. E. Hamm.

November 25, 1918, George D. Hamm conveyed all interest in the above league to L. E. King.

On February 21st, 1925, Mrs. W. D. Markham conveyed to L. E. King all interest in the above League as an heir of W. A. Hamm and M. E. Hamm.

We have been unable to determine the exact heirship of W. A. Hamm. We do not know whether the three children conveying to L. E. King are all of the heirs of W. A. Hamm, Mrs. Markham ought to be able to give you this information.

The land if good ordinary farming land in a reasonably thickly settled neighborhood. At one time it was covered with a moderate growth of short leaf pine and hardwood timber. The timber was all cut over as we recall, some fifteen years ago, and now contains second growth timber only.

It possibly may contain oil, at least there are gas leaks within a short distance. Also out croppings of lignite. We do not know what its present value is as there is practically no market for land in this section at this time due to the financial depression.

An Abstract of the Hamm interest in this land ought not to cost probably more than $50.00. We would be glad to furnish you an abstract of the whole league or any part thereof should you so desire.

Mr. Garland Smith
Attorney at Law
Jasper, Texas

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of August 2, beg to advise that I have been discussing this matter with the Ham heirs and have some more information for you, and also a few more questions I would like to ask.

I might not write the letter in proper order, but will give the information to you as it has been given by them. First, I wish to state that they still insist that they are correct as to their line of descent.

Mrs. Markham, who is now 75 years of age, was born April 1856, which you will see was just twenty-one years after John Gilbert received this league of land. According to the affidavit made by John Newton Gilbert, which was dated August 21, 1909, he stated he was the son of Rm N. Gilbert who was commonly known as Newton, who was the son of John Gilbert, and to whom this league of land was patented: that the original John Gilbert died leaving 8 children surviving. Nancy Ham, the wife of Joel Ham, was one of the children, and Emily Gilbert being one of the children.

Further in the affidavit he says that Nancy Ham had 6 children, naming the different ones, one of whom was William Ham. William Ham is the father of Mrs. Markham, one of our clients who was born in 1856, so from that statement, you will see that it would be pretty hard for that to jibe with the statement of John Gilbert that he had moved on this place with his wife and 7 children, which was in 1835, and then, those children to have to grow to manhood and womanhood and then you see Nancy Ham was one of the children who moved on the place in 1835 and would have to grow to womanhood and marry, and then her son, William Ham, would have to be born and grow to manhood and marry and then have born to him Mrs. Markham: all of which would have to happen within a period of 21 years.

Mrs. Markham has seen Nancy Ham many times as well as Joel Ham and they were her grandparents. She still has a picture in her possession of Nancy Ham and she knows of her own knowledge that Nancy Ham is her grandmother. You will notice in the affidavit that he says Nancy Ham and Emily Gilbert were the daughters of John Gilbert, but Mrs. Markham says she known the original Nancy Ham and also Emily Gilbert and that she has seen both of them and has been in the home of Nancy Ham and that Emily Gilbert is the sister of Nancy Ham as set out in the affidavit and that she lived with her sister, Nancy Ham, but that instead of them being the daughters of John Gilbert, they are the sisters of John Gilbert and that Ned Ham and John Gilbert were brothers and Nancy Ham and Emily Gilbert were the sisters; that she knows of her own knowledge that Emily Gilbert was never married but lived with her sister, Nancy Ham, and that Ned and John Gilbert were born to the home of Nancy Ham.

She goes so far as to tell about Nancy Ham swimming a horse across some big lake down on the border of Louisiana and Texas, going over to see about this land in Sabine County, Texas when her brother, John Gilbert died. She says she has heard her grandmother, Nancy Ham, and her grand-aunt Emily Gilbert, state many times to her they were the sisters of John and Ned Gilbert, and that Nancy was the only one of the four children who married, and knows of her own knowledge that Emily died an old maid.

They state that Lauranah Rankin, Mary Harris, Salina Ables, Frances Ables, Randall Newton Gilbert and David W. Gilbert must have been from a different set of Gilberts because they know they are not in any way connected with Nancy Ham and Emily Gilbert, the original sisters of John Gilbert.

Thomas F. Ham one of these parties, states that he has been to the grave of his grandmother and that he can go there again and that the tombstone will show when she was born and when she died.

Further, concerning this affidavit, I have in my possession a letter written by Mrs. Annie Chapman and Mrs. Mary Arthur, written to Tom Ham and dated May 1, 1919, which is in part as follows:

" You asked us about Uncle John and Uncle Ned Gilbert if they were ~~ba~~ bachelors.~~and both died~~ Yes, they were both bachelors and both died rich and had no heirs except one sister, you grandmother Ham, your fathers mother, and when she died it fell to us and when we die it will all belong to brother William, your father, and when he dies, it belongs to you and I think you should have it....... Uncle John Gilbert had a league of land that I know of in Sabine County and you all should have it. Uncle Ned Gilberts land was in Llana..."

She also stated in this letter something about the instance I have already told you about as to grandmother Ham swimming a horse across a lake to see about a league of land.

You will notice in that judgement taken in 1890 where Julia Vickers, Mary Arthur, Annie Chapman, Amanda Ham and William Ham were all parties to this suit and survey # 5 was set apart to them. They say that they can prove beyond a doubt that Julia Vickers and Amanda Ham died many years before this suit was filed and could not have been parties to the suit. You will notice also that affidavit it states that Frances Ables had no child or children by her first ~~h~~ husband but that after his death she married J. C. Nelson in 1889 and in a copy of this judgment you sent me dated September term, 1890 W. H. Nelson was a party to that suit and at that time Frances Nelson herself must have been living.

In the suit of Gilbert, et al, vs. Macknechney, No. 1153 Frances M. Deed, . H. Nelson and Virginia Tilley were the sole heirs at law of Frances Nelson, nee Tilley.

Copy of Information written by Josephine Markham 1920

(Josephâne Markham sister of Tom Ham)

Why did John Newton Gilbert stop at one third league, if he had of been a grandson of John Gilbert?

Why couldn't John Gilbe t have made any kind of a statement to have acquired this league of land as the state don't require this statement made under oath?

We find where John Gilbert come from the north where as in truth he originated from Duck River Tenn.
Himself, wife and seven children come from the north. In John N. Jr. Gilbert sworn statement that he had eight children from his statement we find one must have been born since the year of thirty five.

Mary Harris died without issue. David W. Gilbert died without issue. Frances Ables had no child or children by her first husband. After his death she married J. C. Nelson. In 1889 and at that time of said partition of said Gilbert League suit Feb. 6, 1889. The same year Frances Albles married J. C. Nelson and we find them sole heirs at law. One year later to wit Frances M. Delk W. H. Nelson Virginia Tilley were the sole heirs at law said Frances Nelson.

We find John Gilbert Jr. gets his affidavit sole by his tradition and hear say. How could he thoroughly explore John Gilbert or his family record. And at the same time never saw John Gilbert. Nancy Ham is the Grandmother of the Ham heirs here in mentioned. Lauranah Rankin wife of Harrison Rankins has no right in said estate. Mary Harris wife of Benson Harris has no right in said estate, Salina Ables wife of Ezekiel Ables. Nor Frances Ables wife of Andy Ables, Randall Newton Gilbert, also David W. Gilbert, also Emily Gilbert.

We do not know Mary Harris in this suit. We don't know David W. Gilbert. Frances Ables is no heir. Why would J. C. Nelson have any right by this union in 1889 being all in the same year of partition.

It seems that Nelson Gilbert had no right to said land nor never knew of said land until he sued Macknechny, Frances M. Deek had no right. How could W. H. Nelson, Virginia Tilley become the sole heirs at law of the John Gilbert estate. Frances Nelson nee Gilbert at that time. Mary J. Vick M. S. Vick, Marie Vick, T. E. Vick also Margarette Sullivan, Ezekiel Ables. Cornelis Cooke and M. A. Cooke,

We find that these parties are sole heirs of Salina Ables. nee Gilbert. Emily Gilbert, Laurana Rankin nee Gilbert, John G. Rankin, Mrs. OA. O. Coleman and Sam H, Rankin.

We find that all of the Ham Heirs were parties to said partition. That is all the Nancy Ham heirs, except John G. Ham. Mrs. Augustus M. Morrow could not be rightful heir.

We notice that John N. Gilbert made a affidavit to said claim. The

I think you will find from the information I have here that this suit was filed on February 6, 1889, which date shows that the suit wa filed the same year that Frances Ables married J. C. Nelson, consequently, W. H. Nelson, according to that affidavit and the true facts, could not have been born.

You state in your letter that you found powers of attorney made to John H. Brooks and Silas H. Johnson coupled with one-half interest from different parties, including Nancy Ham, through whom we claim we will inherit, but you do not state the date of those instruments, and consequently, we are unable to state whether or not they actually executed those powers of attorney. You state also that you find powers of attorney from Mary Arthur and Annie Chapman, Amanda Ham, Julia Vickers and William P. Carter with power to sell on June 22, 1901. O f course we cannot state right at this time as to Annie Chapman and Mary Arthur but we do say that Amanda Ham and Julia Vickers did not execute such power of attorney because we will be able to show that Amanda Ham and Julia Vickers died long prior to that time and even before the suit was filed in 1890. I would suggest that you please get the dates of the powers of attorney from Nancy Ham and Emily Gilbert in order that we might see the exact date and can prove the date of their deaths.

Please see also the deed from G. D. Ham and J. D. Ham and find out if they transferred all of their interest in this land or whether it refers to sub-division 5 thereof. The deed was made to Lee King.

In connection with this same matter, we can show that John Gilbert came from Duck County, Tennessee and never came from the North as indicated. After going over these matters again as to this information, see what you think about the situation and see if you think it would be a different proposition if we were able to prove the things they claim they can.

After you have done this, please let me hear from you further and I will try to get any additional information you think advisable.

Yours very truly,

E. O. Northcutt

being parties to said partition or suit is holy untrue .

We find that Julia Vickers has sold her interest several times to-gether with all the rest.

Isn't it a fact that if John Gilbert was a grandson of the original John Gilbert.

The Ham Heirs would have no interest whatever in said Gilbert estate.

Do you know that W. A. Ham and Nancy C. Ham and Mary Arthur Nee Ham and Ann Chapman were intimate associated with John Gilbert and knew him and his brother Ned Gilbert personally, I have prove from my aunts, Also my father and mother with which makes me know these facts I also I'm seventy five years old. Mrs. M. J. Markham, Thomas F. Ham and G. D. Ham the sole and only heirs we know of.

In Loving Remembrance of

W. A. Ham,

Died Oct. 21. 1893.
Aged 60 Yrs.. 3 Mos.

A precious one from us has gone;
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled,
The boon His love has given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in heaven.

OLD CORA

Ten miles southeast of the town of Comanche at old Cora was the site of the first county courthouse. The old log buildin was part of a two-room structure located just north of the Leo River bridge. In disrepair, the log house was later moved an rebuilt at Comanche as a result of a citizen drive to preserv the historic building, and since has received a historical marke

Described as the first tannery in Comanche County, th remains of an old furnace were located on Sid Cunningham's farm. The tanner is thought to have been Albert Howell, who use the bark from live oak trees in the area to get acid to tan th leather.

Fleming Oak at Comanche was described as the most his toric spot in the county. Before county settlement, Martin Flem ing had slept under its branches on a camping trip in 1854. Visi tors were directed to a spot behind Higginbotham's store i Comanche to view a rough little stone building with a metal roo that had served as the calaboose before the turn of the centur It was built in 1892 by Bill McGee. Its dimensions were 15" x 20" and the thick stone walls were about ten feet high. The eas and west walls had a barred opening about eighteen inches square for light and air. After the new three-story jail was constructed in 1904, the city of Comanche passed a resolution to deed the calaboose to Higginbotham Brothers & Co. for "old times sake".

The Municipal Park at Lake Eanes had recently been constructed, and it was considered one of the most attractive recreation spots in the county. For many years it was the site for the Old Settlers Reunion, and still attracts a number of family reunions each summer.

The Narrows is a canyon located in the northwest part of Comanche County near Beattie. Extending about six miles in length, the canyon has several caves and precipices. It is believed to have been frequented by Indians before the coming of the White Man. A feature of Narrows Canyon is the Dark Cave, about 40 x 50 feet in size, but rarely explored because of the darkness. Needles Eye is formed by two massive rocks leaving space only wide enough for one person to pass through to a series of steps going upward about thirty or forty feet. The Lunch Room is a huge flat rock supported by another rock in the form of a table large enough to spread a picnic lunch. Dripping Springs was so named because the clear, cool water dripping onto moss-covered rocks was considered to be the most beautiful and attractive spot in the Narrows. This area is privately owned and suggestions have been made to designate it a state park.

First Courthouse Located At Old Cora

The first courthouse for Comanche County was the log cabin at Cora, the first county site; and now stands on the hill overlooking Lake Eanes and the park three and a half miles south from Comanche. The first courthouse erected in Comanche was of split post oak logs cut on the town site and the ends set in a ditch in the ground and covered with boards. This building was erected late in 1858 or early in 1859, and was destroyed by fire in March, 1862. This type of building was known as a "picket house." The Commissioners' Court records were destroyed in this fire so we have no strictly county records prior to March, 1862, though the district court records and deed records are intact and were either rescued from the fire or kept in other buildings, more likely the latter—as in those days the deed records and district court records were likely kept at night in the homes of the men serving as district and county clerks.

On account of the Civil War and Indian depredations there was little if any increase in population from 1860 to 1870, and the county was without a courthouse until in the early seventies. During this time the county rented quarters from first one and then another. What was known as the "Fossett Building," a two story rock building on the west side of the square was sometimes used for holding court, as the second story of this building was the only hall in town.

The second courthouse, sometimes referred to as the little "Red Brick Courthouse" and remembered by many now living in the county, was erected in the early seventies. We know it was begun prior to 1873 as James B. (Uncle Jim) Nabers helped to make the brick that were used in its building, and he went to work for The Comanche Chief in May, 1873; and we know it was not completed in May, 1874, for district court was in session in the "Fossett Building" in May, 1874, when City Marshal Jeff Greene, in self defense, killed a man by the name of Davis, an associate of John Wesley Hardin. When the shooting manche territory over the military road in 1851 and 52. The supplies were carried in ox wagons, six yoke of en to the wagon and ten wagons to the train.

The history of Comanche County in which most of are most interested begins in 1853 or early in 1854 hen Jesse Mercer, F. M. Collier, B. J. Holmsley, Joseph icks and F. H. Neely and possibly others, explored the rritory that now is Comanche County and determined make it their home. The first permanent settlement as when Jesse Mercer and F. M. Collier with their families ruck camp on Mercer's Creek some four miles west of ewburg and seven miles southeast from Comanche on ecember 18, 1854. One account gives this date as Decem-er 3rd while another puts it later in December, but all gree that it was in December 1854. In 1855 came Joseph licks, F. H. Neely, B. J. Holmsley, James Cunningham, eo. W. Montgomery, J. M. and F. M. Cross, J. A. McGuire, ansome Tuggle, Jesse Bond, James Martin, T. C. Frost, . J. Dunlap, The Ishams, Parkers, McKinzies, Whitneys, orthcutts, Cokers, T. W. Matthews, Charley Campbell, onathan Watson, the Jeffreys, T. J. Nabers, and likely thers whose names we have been unable to get.

By late fifty-five there were thirty to forty families n the county and a move was inaugurated to create and rganize the county and the county was created and organized early in 1856. As originally created the county included a good part of the west half of Hamilton County, a small part of the northeast section of what is now Brown County, and the north part of what is now Mills County. An election was held early in 1856 and the following officers were elected: Jesse Bond, Chief Justice; F. M. Collier, County Clerk; James C. Martin, Sheriff, and T. J. Dunlap, Justice of the Peace. The Commissioners Court records of the county were burned in 1860, and we have no record of who the first Commissioners were, or who the other county officers were if any. In fact there is no record of the county's business from 1856 to the date of this fire. During the process of organization, F. A. Thompson and J. E. Bouldin, who owned the W. H. Murray one third league survey on South Leon fourteen miles southeast from the present town of Comanche, proposed to donate to the county eighty acres of this survey on the rest of a rise just to the north of South Leon and overlooking the Leon valley; conditioned that the county seat be located on this site. The offer was accepted. The site was on the old military road which the topography of the country made the gateway to the west for all east and southeast Texas, and as the eastern part of the State was beginning to look to the west, the county seat was soon a thriving frontier town. The town was first known as Troy. When Troy was submitted to the Post Office Department as the name of troy post office it was not accepted as there was in Texas at that time an office by that name. The name Cora was then submitted and accepted. The first store in Cora was owned by J. M. Cross, father of F. M. Cross; the second store was owned and operated by James and Ship Carnes. James M. Cross also erected and operated a steam saw mill; Thomas W. Mathews operated a woodshop, making furniture for the pioneers; and a Mr. Deaton was proprietor a tavern.

The Indians began giving trouble in 1857, and this slowed up emigration to this section and in 1858 the Legislature created Hamilton County taking a large slice from the east part of Comanche County and it was decided to move the county seat nearer the center of the county. This stopped the growth of Cora, though a number continued in business there until after the Civil War. An election was held at Cora on Secession early in 1861.

The county seat was at Cora from the spring of 1856 to the summer of 1859, a little more than three years. The first deed was filed for record with F. M. Collier, County Clerk, on June 2nd, 1856. The McKinzies recorded their brand June 2, 1856, and these recordings would indicate that the clerk's office opened for business on that date. The first marriage license was issued to Thomas J. Holmsley and Elizabeth Cunningham, October 22, 1856, and on the same date there was issued a marriage license to Elias Deaton and Mary A. Wright. Thomas J. Dunlap, Justice of the Peace, certifies that he solemnized the rites of matrimony between Holmsley and Cunningham on October 23, 1856 at the residence of James Cunningham with N. N. Dawson and C. C. Campbell as witnesses, and Jesse was Peter Johnson. This was in 1858. Johnson with his twelve year old son, Peter, Jr., were on their way to mill at Meridian, Texas. The father was murdered and Peter, Jr., captured. The boy was abandoned by the Indians and a few days later rescued by cowhands who found him following a belled cow belonging to a nearby settler. Kin McKinzie reported to be the first white man killed in the county by Indians, was killed in a fight with raiding Indians in northwest part of town. James H. Tankersly, Comanche's first postmaster was killed by a band of Indians near the present site of Brooksmith in Brown County. Tankersly and a Mr. Carmean were on their way to Camp Collier or Fort McKavett. Another early Indian murder was that of the 12-year-old son of John Baggett who lived on Baggett Creek, some seven miles north of Cora. This was in about 1863.

During Civil War days and a few years thereafter, Comanche County had two Frontier Guard Companies, one commanded by Capt. James Cunningham and the other by Captain W. F. Robinson. The City of Comanche has a photostatic copy of Company No. 2 commanded by Captain Robinson presented by Judge P. M. Rice of Hamilton. In so far as we know there is no record in the county on Captain Cunningham's company.

The first post office in the town of Comanche was established in 1860 with James H. Tankersly postmaster. The post office was housed in Tankersly's resident, a log house located on the lot just north and across the street from Clemons Motor Co. The first mail service was once a week out of Gatesville. The mail was brought in a two wheel gig and Sam Bigham of Gatesville was the first mail carrier. From 1857 till into the seventies all mail service was through Waco with New Orleans as the distributing point for all the southwest.

Comanche County was the first county created and organized in this section and in the early seventies was political headquarters for fifty or more counties, organized and unorganized to the west and northwest, and in seventy-four or five, John D. Stephens of Comanche was elect State Senator and represented most of the west h of Texas.

Among the first settlers in portions of the county other than the settlements at Cora, Mercer's Creek, Mountain Creek and South Leon though no claim is made tl the list is at all complete we find the following, Gustive section: William Lester, James Farmer and Cary Wood Warren's Creek: Wm. Tatum, Andy Miller, James Cameron Charley Cameron and Harrison Albin; Round Mountain settlement (Sidney): Malachi Cox, Don Cox, Boaz Cox Polk Cox; Sweetwater: Henry Martin, Jr. and Wm. Ham Rush Creek: Wm. Dunn, John Stinnett, John Hanson, J Hanson, Silas Dunn, and Jack Hanson; Comanche at Indian Creek: Thomas Wilson, Dick Kiser, Kenneth Mc Kinzie, Thomas Logan, Bailey Marshall, Geo. Scott, K Rigsby, Tom Wright, J. A. (Uncle Jack) Wright, Robert Marshall, Jim Millican, Any Stewart, James H. Tankers Silas Tackett, Wm. (Bill) Poiner, John A. McGuire, Jo Jenkins, M. O. Coker, Len Coker, Henry Martin, Sr., a Chas. Isham; Proctor (Walnut Creek): Wm. (Col. Bi Stone, M. Stone, Enoch James, Gabe Ratliff, Dave Johnson and T. O. Moore; Pettit: Asa Reed, Rev. Jesse Johnson J. P. Pettit, W. G. Parker, Rogue Northcutt, Orlan Whitney, Nick Cox; Baggett Creek: John Baggett; Lamki Eli Pickett, Dave Rol [illegible], Wm. Neel, Thomas Shockley Dick Shockley, Robert Shockley, James Neel. Alex Neel Booker Neel.

We have been able to get but little data as to the first settlers in that part of the county north of Rush Creek In the De Leon sections the Carruths, Nunnellys, Poun Scotts and Barkers were among the first. The De Leon territory did not begin to settle rapidly till the coming the Texas Central Railroad in about 1881. In the Sipe Springs section the Childers, Plotts, Halls, Whiteside Fosters, Deweys, Watkins, Oneals, Leonards, English Wyatts and Murphys were among the first.

In this brief sketch we have made no attempt come nearer to the present than 1875 and have only touch some of the high places from 1854 to about 1875. My sources have been the Comanche deed records and District court records and articles I find in the files of The Comanche Chief contributed by L. B. Russell, Mrs. Mollie Moore Godbold, Mrs. Oscar Callaway, and Early Days in Central Texas by F. M. Cross who settled on Mountain Creek in 1855 and who drove one of the six yoke ox teams in 1852 in freighting supplies from Fort Gates to Forts Griffin and Belknap.

From these sources we will in conclusion note some of the FIRSTS in Comanche County history in so far as shown by the above sources:

First Road: The Old Military Road from Fort Gates to Fort Griffin.

First Town: Troy, which was later named Cora.

First permanent dwelling erected by F. M. Collier in January, '55. This log house was erected on land that is now a part of the Walter Barret Ranch.

First school in town of Comanche taught by Mrs. T. C. Frost in the fall of 1859.

First white child born: John E. McGuire, June 1, 1855.

First girl born in county: Katie Campbell, daughter of C. C. and Julia Campbell. First married to Aldredge and after his death married John P. Anderson.

First furrow plowed by B. J. Holmsley.

First Officers: Jesse Bond, Chief Justice; F. M. Collier, County Clerk; James Martin, Sheriff; T. J. Dunlap, Justice of the Peace; District Judge, N. W. Battle; J. L. McCall, District Attorney.

Both Methodist and Baptist denominations had ministers in this territory almost from the beginning. Among these pioneer preachers were Rev. Kidd, M. O. Coker, and Peter Gravis, Methodists; and J. W. (Choctaw Bill) Robinson and Rev. Tally, Baptists.

First Newspaper: Comanche Chief; First Editor, G. A. Beeman; First Printer's Devil: James B. (Uncle Jim) Nabers.

John Wesley Hardin—Noted Outlaw

John Wesley Hardin and Jim Taylor won a lot of most widely known desperados ever to appear in this section, came to Comanche County in 1874.

At this time, they were wanted in DeWitt County for murder. When they came to Comanche County, they brought a string of race horses with them.

John Wesley Hardin's father was a minister in Comanche, and was a very highly respected citizen, and a very devout man. Joe Hardin, a brother of John Wesley, was a practicing attorney in Comanche.

Hardin and Taylor, soon after their arrival here, began to steal stock from various ranches in Comanche and Brown County. In one of their raids on the Williams' Ranch in Brown County, Sheriff Charlie Webb of Brown County learned their true identity.

Sheriff Webb came to Comanche a few days later when a racing meet was scheduled in which some of the Hardin and Taylor horses were running.

John Wesley Hardin and Jim Taylor won a lot of money on the races, and proceeded to make the rounds of the various saloons, until they were quite drunk. The pair were warned by some of their friends to leave town because Sheriff Webb was in Comanche to take them in.

They didn't heed the warning. Hardin and Webb met at a saloon on the northwest corner of the square at Comache, and shot it out. Hardin shot Webb four times before the Brown County sheriff could draw his gun.

In the meanwhile, some Texas Rangers, who were camped east of Comanche came into town and arrested Joe Hardin, Aleck Barrickman, and Anderson. The courthouse was being built at this time and a house on the northeast corner of the square was being used for a jail.

Sheriff Webb came to Comanche a few days later when a racing meet was scheduled in which some of the Hardin and Taylor horses were running.

John Wesley Hardin and Jim Taylor won a lot of money on the races, and proceeded to make the rounds of the various saloons, until they were quite drunk. The pair were warned by some of their friends to leave town because Sheriff Webb was in Comanche to take them in.

Many people do not know that within the distance of a quarter of a mile from this school and in a northeasterly direction are the Ranger Springs. These springs leap out of the side of the hill and flow down to the creek bed nearby. Fine water for drinking purposes has flowed from these six springs for many many years. One gentleman said his father got water there in the year 1869, another said he passed there as a lad of 15 some 60 years ago and saw the running springs and a band of Texas Rangers camped nearby.

Ranger Springs—Once Famous Camping Site

Six miles to the west of the town of Comanche is the Brysonville School house. This two-story building of fine proportions is located about 300 yards north of the highway.

Why are they called "Ranger Springs?" Several of the older people were asked this question and without exception the answer was, "Because the Rangers camped there so much and so often to get water." The group of 15 Rangers mentioned above camped out there for some time hoping that John Wesley Hardin would put in his appearance as it was thought he was in or near Comanche. As the story runs they did not even see Harding much less have an opportunity to capture him.

Guards were posted around this house to keep prisoners from escaping. About two o'clock in the morning after this trio of accomplists were arrested, some 300 men from Comanche and Brown Counties rode onto the square and disarmed the guards.

The mob took Joe Hardin, Aleck Barrickman, and Anderson, three miles southwest of Comanche, and hanged them.

John Wesley and Jim Taylor made good their escape. Later, in 1877, Hardin was arrested by a Texas Ranger in Florida, and brought to Austin and put in jail.

The trial was set in Comanche. A detachment of Company E Texas Rangers was sent to Austin to escort the desparado back to Comanche. Six Rangers guarded him all the way back.

During the trial, in which he was convicted and drew a prison sentence of twenty-five years, the Rangers continued to guard him. Hardin served part of this term at the penitentiary at Huntsville, but was pardoned.

Hardin's colorful career as an outlaw ended in El Paso saloon, where he was killed by a constable.

The Fleming Oak

Although there are other stories about the Fleming Oak and although they might be more romantic or exciting, the following story appears to be the correct one. It appears in Famous Trees of Texas published by Texas A & M University, and the story therein is supported by an article from the Dallas Morning News on February 6, 1921.

Martin V. Fleming and his father arrived in Texas from Georgia in 1854. They spent their first night under the live oak that later became known as the Fleming Oak. When the county seat was established at Comanche in 1859, this same oak was on the southwest corner of the site chosen for the courthouse.

About 1911, Comanche's city fathers decided to pave the courthouse square. As the workmen were busily clearing trees from the area, "Uncle Mart" Fleming, as he was then affectionately known, stopped the workmen as they approached "his tree" and politely told them he had been tying his horse to that tree for years and he was used to seeing it there. In the exchange of words that followed, Uncle Mart threatened to use his "No. 10's" on them if they even touched the oak with an axe. Thinking he meant a 10-guage shotgun, the workers backed down, and the tree was spared. Uncle Mart later confided that he had meant his size 10 boots.

In 1919 Uncle Mart again came to the defense of his tree when some "uninformed" citizens talked about removing the old oak. They didn't. Then in his 80's, he is quoted as saying, "They since have paid due respect to the old live oak."

The old oak's benefactor has been gone for a third of a century, but his love for "his tree" lives on in the hearts of Comanche citizens, who proudly point to this living memorial of their pioneer heritage.

Mart Fleming First Visits County In 1854

Another man who has contributed much to the upbuilding of Comanche County, was M. V. Fleming, or "Uncle Mart," as he was affectionately termed. He came here before there was a county and when what is now the town, was a postoak grove. It was a night in the summer of 1854 that he slept under the famous oak tree on the court house square. Many have heard the story of how some years ago when they were paving the square, it was ordered that the tree be cut down. Uncle Mart took his stand under the tree and defied any one to touch it, saying some of the land marks of old days should be preserved. Needless to say, the tree was spared.

He and his father were making a prospecting trip at the time of his arrival here, on horseback. His father had land here, part of which Mr. Fleming owned. Mr. Fleming did not take up his permanent residence here, though he was often through here in Indian times.

He spoke very kindly of the Indians, as he lived with them once.

When he was a little boy his father was given a grant of land by Governor Ross' father where Georgetown now is. Several families settled there but soon after the Mexican war began and everybody left the settlement but his father's family. One day a band of friendly Indians visited them and insisted that the Fleming family live with them. Under the circumstances there was nothing else to do. So they lived in the Indian camp for two years. The Indians were uniformly kind to them. Taught him to swim and practice various forms of athletics, all of which contributed no doubt to the sturdy erect form of Mr. Fleming. The parents began to fear the permanent influence of the Indians, so finally left them.

He seems to have drifted back to Comanche quite often for he enlisted in the Confederate army from here. After the Civil War ended, like many other young men of his day, he was unsettled, and thought he could not live in Texas, so with several other young bloods, down into Mexico they went.

Mr. Fleming said he came to himself then and decided to return to Texas and be a good American citizen. He considered Sam Houston the greatest man who ever guided the ship of state in Texas. "Many a time, he has been in our little log cabin and I have listened to him talk. He was a clear thinker with a big heart, whose visions for the future of Texas where only bounded by the horizon or the blue sky."

He lived and married in Washington County but Dec. 1, 1872, he arrived in Comanche and was an actual citizen of the town thereafter. A few months later he and other citizens of the town assisted in the enterprise and the Comanche Chief was started with G. A. Beeman as editor. "I guess it wasn't much outfit or much office, but we were glad to get it and mighty proud of it," he said.

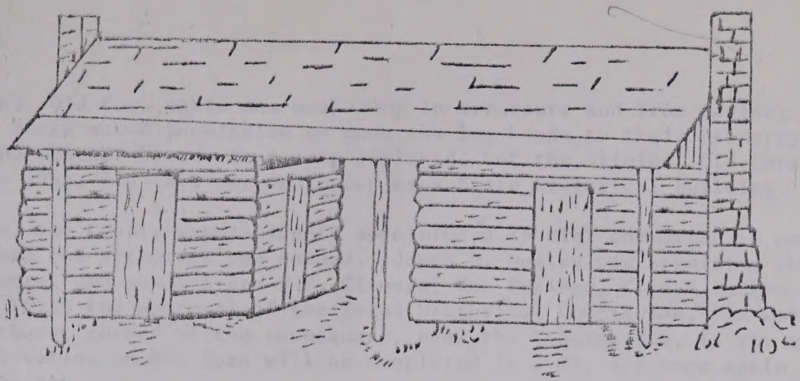
In 1873 Mr. Fleming hauled the lumber from Waco and built the house in which his daughter, Miss Camille resides. It was the best house in town and all the parties for the young people were given there.

Mr. Fleming said that the best thing he had accomplished was helping young people either in securing an education or getting a start in life and "Never have I experienced any ingratitude from them. Often at Christmas or on birthdays comes a check or some other remembrance from some of my boys I have helped."

Speaking of the pioneer days, he said: "Often I have been a month without a bite of bread and we rarely had any vegetables. Just game all the time." They had to go one hundred miles to mill and there was practically no farming. Life was a hard proposition, business competition was not so keen but the fight for existence kept them busy.

FLEMING OAK SHALL SURVIVE

The Fleming Centennial Oak, about which much tradition is centered and which is to survive the axman's fall, stands alone near the southwest corner of the Comanche public square where for many years it served as a "hitching" place for horses and mules. The tree is highly regarded by most of the citizens of the county who are but little concerned about what part of the story is true or only tradition about how it saved the life of the late "Uncle Mart" Fleming from the Indians and how he later with gun in hand defied the men who had been authorized by the County and City authorities to cut it down when work first got underway on paving the square.



OLD CORA - The Oldest Original Existing Courthouse in Texas

It was in the year of 1856 that Little Cora came into being. The materials for her construction were probably taken from trees that grew nearby where she first sat on the North bank of the South Leon River, the spot now known to be in the Pettit community in the Southeast part of Comanche County. The little courthouse was created by the hands of the dedicated persons interested in the development of their County. Comanche County had been created from parts of Bosque and Coryell Counties.

Little Cora served her purpose at the County Seat, as three terms of District Court were held there. Court consisted of trials for murder and theft. There were indictments such as unlawfully playing at a game with cards; engaging in spiritous liquors on Sunday; having a pistol on his person; rudely displaying a pistol in a public place; seriously threatening to take a life of a human being; willfully disturbing a congregation assembled for religious worship, and other complaints. The sides of Little Cora were bulging at times with the various activities that took place there, but she stood firm and endured it, as she was young and strong in those days.

When Hamilton County was created, part of it was taken from Comanche County, leaving Cora at the edge of the County. The County Seat was moved nearer to the center of the county on July 18, 1859. The city of Comanche became the County Seat.

The original log courthouse building remained at Cora townsite, as that village was important for a few years after the county seat was moved. The churches and businesses that had begun at Cora soon moved to Comanche, thus leaving Little Cora behind.

Rather than letting Cora stand and rot, the log courthouse was converted into a residence for the Tom W. Mathews family after they purchased the land around the building. In 1938, Mack Mathews, a son, who had been born there, wrote a letter to the Comanche Chief, asking that the old dwelling be preserved as a historical building. In 1939, J.R. Eanes and a committee including Ira Clemons, Walter Barret and Wid Spivey solicited donations from businessmen and interested citizens to purchase and move Old Cora to Lake Eanes. By this time, Little Cora was becoming Old Cora. However, repairs were made and Cora again served her County with dignity, as many people visited there on their way for a picnic in the Lake Eanes Park.

In 1963, Old Cora again was weakening in structure and from neglect. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Burks asked permission to move the log house to their property in Comanche. The worn and weather-beaten logs were replaced, but the original Old Cora remained intact. In 1965, Old Cora was dedicated as a State Historical Building.

In 1983 the County Commissioners appointed a special committee to once again give Old Cora the attention she needed. James H. Dudley was appointed chairman of this committee, and members are W.E. Clemons, Ben Evridge, Clodah Patton and W. H. Smith, Jr. With the approval of the Texas Historical Commission, Old Cora was moved to the southwest corner of the townsquare, near the Fleming Oak, in the summer of 1984. Restoration of Old Cora will be completed in 1985, and once again she will serve her county.

"WOODMAN SPARE THAT TREE"

Uncle Mart Fleming kept "progress" from destroying an old Oak Tree at Comanche, Texas, that he credited with saving his life.

In the heart of Texas is the thriving town of Comanche. Once it was also in the very heart of the Indian Country and from the savage tribe, The Comanches, received it's name. U.S. Highway 67/377, on which the town is located, passes directly across the attractive public square. At the Southwest corner of this square stands a hugh Oak which was in a grove - the center of the original settlement of Comanche. Today it stands alone and why is was left makes an interesting story.

Many years ago, the City made the decision to pave the square and when the work began on the project, one by one the trees of the original grove fell before the ax, that is, all but this one. When its time came, the workmen were confronted by one of Comanche's old settlers, Uncle Mart Fleming. He stood beside the old Oak with a rifle in his hand. "I'll protect this particular tree with my very life," he assured the workmen. Surely the scene must have reminded many who heard him of the famous poem which begins, "Woodman Spare That Tree."

The workmen listened respectfully to the determined Uncle Mart as with his white hair and beard ruffled by the breeze he told them a story about the tree, a story that dated back to the Indian days. He was being pursued by savages and just as the redskins were closing in on him, he took refuge behind the great Oak and held them off. "To that tree I owe my life," he assured the crowd that had gathered, "And no axe will ever touch it!"

The crowd was so touched and so interested that it was decided to leave the tree as a reminder of the colorful past of the vicinity. Now it stands alone as a monument to the days before civilization came to make the vicinity the prosperous section of Texas that it is today.

Today Comanche is known as the "Peanut Capital of the World" and the "Home of Diversification" with farm, ranch and dairy economy. It is hard to imagine that once the Indian Warcry rang over the City and campfires burned like so many fire flies in the vicinity, that great herds of buffalo roamed the hills, that antelopes grazed the lush grass, and wild mustangs thundered through the square- But the silent Old Tree attests that this is so. That tree is known as the Fleming Oak.

HOW LOCAL COMMUNITIES WERE NAMED

COMANCHE COUNTY was named by Col. John Henry Brown of Belton, Texas, in 1856. He especially admired the Comanche Indians.

The town of COMANCHE was named for the County, when the county seat was moved in 1859.

COTTON GROVE was named because of its location - the School was situated in a grove of Cottonwood trees.

LEON school district was named for the Leon River which in turn was named in honor of Alonzo DeLeon.

COMANCHE COUNTY

Comanche County, Texas was created in 1856 from parts of Bosque and Coryell counties, and was named by Colonel John Henry Brown of Belton, Texas. His admiration for the Comanche Indians may best be told by the inscription on the 1936 Centennial Historical Marker located on U.S. Highway 67 west of the city limits of Comanche. It reads . . .

> COMANCHE COUNTY
> CREATED JANUARY 25, 1856
> NAMED FOR THE COMANCHE INDIANS.
> NOMADS OF THE PLAINS, SUCCESSFUL HUNTERS, > SUPERB HORSEMEN, AND COURAGEOUS WARRIORS.
> THE TERROR OF TEXAS FRONTIER SETTLERS WHO > DISPOSSESSED THEM OF THEIR HUNTING GROUNDS.
> COUNTY SEAT
> TROY (LATER CHANGED TO CORA) 1856
> COMANCHE, SINCE JULY 18, 1859

Grants of land near the town of Gustine were issued to James Hamilton in 1845 and patented January 24, 1849. Jesse Mercer, who was in the area in 1847 as a chain man with a surveying crew, pre-empted a section of land on Mercer Creek about four miles west of Newburg. For most people, history of the county begins when the first settlers began to arrive. In December, 1854, Mercer returned with his family accompanied by the Frank M. Collier family, to settle in what was to become Comanche County. They were soon followed by Dr. Ransom Tuggle, Dr. Oaks, and Burrell J. Holmsley. Early settlers were Fletcher H. Neely, John and J. M. McGuire, and James Cunningham, who later became a Texas Ranger captain. Other families arrived in time to be added to the 1856 tax roll, and some of these were Charles C. Campbell, M. O. Coker, Thomas Dunlap, A. B. Edards, C. H. Isham, Dr. G. W. Montgomery, and James H. Neel.

TROY

When the county was organized a settlement sprang up. It had about a half dozen business houses and a steam saw and grist mill. On April 15, 1857, J. E. Bouldin and Frank A. Thomson conveyed to Comanche County 81 acres out of the W. H. Murry survey for the purpose of establishing a county seat. Included in this tract was the frontier town of Troy. A few weeks later Thomas C. Frost, land agent for the county, was given permission to sell lots in the town. A four and one-half acre tract was set aside for a public square and some streets named were North, Elm, Main and Water Street.

Although citizens had first chosen the name Troy for the town, application to the Postal Department in April, 1857 was refused because a Troy, Texas had already been registered as a post office. Thomas Frost then submitted several other names one of which was CORA, in honor of Miss Cora Beeman, the oldest daughter of Major Alonzo Beeman of Moffat, Bell County, Texas. Thus, Cora became the first county seat.

CORA COURTHOUSE

Now referred to as "old" Cora, the first Comanche County courthouse was located on the north bank of the South Leon River, three miles east of the pioneer settlement of Fleming, now known as the Pettit community. The split log courtroom was probably constructed of trees from a nearby growth. Situated on the public square in Cora, the one room structure also served as a post office, with Thomas C. Frost as postmaster. The mail came in once a week overland from Gatesville. The first deed filed for record, June 2, 1856, was from Frederick Hoffman to J. P. Osterhaut, conveying 320 acres of land near Hazel Dell for $160. Next on record, August 4, 1856, is a retransfer of 213 acres from Dr. Ransom Tuggle to Jesse Mercer for the sum of $213. In a few months land had gone to a dollar an acre!

Three terms of district court were held at Cora, with Judge N. W. Battle of Waco presiding. The first court term convened May 3, 1858 and the grand jury was drawn from twenty men, with jurors and bailiffs receiving $1.50 a day for their services. Colorful stories come down to us of the trials held at Cora. The murder trial of William "Bud" Tatum, accused of killing Wylie Baggett, attracted large crowds. The little courtroom was filled, men stood outside the door, and others peeped through the windows. We note that after three trials Tatum was acquitted. In the murder trial of Asa Reed, Jesse Reed and John Taylor, Asa Reed was cleared when it was learned Jesse was the murderer. Jesse Reed was never apprehended.

Cora is one the many pioneer settlements no longer in existence. Today, all that remains of Cora is a cemetery— one of the oldest in Comanche County. The little log courthouse was moved and is now at Burks Museum in Comanche.

COMANCHE

In January, 1858 the Legislature created Hamilton County from parts of Comanche, Bosque, and Lampasas counties. This act took a good part of the southeastern section of Comanche County and left the county seat at Cora nearly at the new boundary line. As a result, it was decided to move to a more central location. Captain John Duncan of Matagorda County, who owned several large tracts of land in Comanche County, gave 240 acres to establish a new county seat. T. J. Nabers laid off and mapped the location and the new town was named Comanche.

Thomas C. Frost, continuing as agent for the county, sold lots in the town of Comanche. Early records of lots sold by the county list Lon Price and G. M. Pettit as each having bought a lot in November, 1859. A year later, in December, 1860, twenty-three transactions had been recorded involving the sale of some thirty lots, and Comanche was on its way to becoming a town. There were plans for a school, churches, and a cemetery, as well as a courthouse.

The log courtroom at Cora reverted to use as a residence. In time, another room was added to the building and it was ordered to transcribe, or have transcribed, the old records of official oaths, bonds, beef tallies, bills of sale, etc., the person performing said task to receive 15c for each and every hundred words transcribed. The original brand register and marriage records are intact. The story is that a hard working clerk took some books home to work after hours and thus saved them from the fire.

Plans were made to build a new courthouse and jail. It was to be a two story structure, fifty feet square, "built of hewn stone and good plank, with doors and windows neatly arched." These were ambitious plans for Comanche which had a total county population of 709 in 1860. More than ten years passed before the new courthouse became a reality.

RED BRICK COURTHOUSE

A contract was let for a new courthouse on April 14, 1874. At a called term of the court, August 10, 1874, M. V. Fleming was appointed county agent to supervise and control the construction, but it was 1875 before the building was completed. Standing on what was to become courthouse square in Comanche the $12,000 courthouse was not of hewn stone as first planned, but of locally made red brick with cut stone trim. It was the largest building in Comanche County. Forty by sixty feet in size, it consisted of two stories topped by a dome, with the main entrance facing east. The Right Reverend Alexander C. Garrett, Missionary Bishop of North Texas, wrote in his record that Comanche had "a fine brick courthouse, some brick and stone stores, about 400-500 people . . . " when he visited the town in September, 1875.

became the two room log house we know today. Some of the early owners were Tom W. Mathews, whose son Mack was born in the log house Christmas Day, 1869. John W. Clark bought the house and several acres from Mathews in 1873. Then, O. S. Mason purchased it from Clark in 1880. According to an interview published in The Comanche Chief, June 10, 1932, Sallie Mason Hicks stated that the log house had two rooms when her father bought it from John Clark. Mrs. Hicks added that as a young lady she used one of the rooms in which to teach school, and further, that the logs from the west room were those of the courthouse as it stood in Cora.

"PICKET" COURTHOUSE

The courthouse built in the new town of Comanche was of slim log poles. A trench was dug and the poles set on end similar to a picket fence. The structure had an earthen floor and shake roof. Because of the method of construction, the combination courthouse and jail was called the "picket" courthouse. It was located southwest of what is now the town square, but near historic Fleming Oak. Picket courthouse had a short life. The Minutes of Commissioners Court for March 20, 1862, simply state: "Whereas on the night of the 15th inst. the courthouse was burned . . . ". With no further comment on the fire, the court arranged to rent Silas Puckett's building for $65, to be used as a district courtroom and clerk's office. J. M. Green was appointed agent to furnish paper, books and furniture to equip the office. The county clerk

As Comanche grew, problems arose. One was wandering livestock within the town limits. After much discussion, in 1880 J. W. Greene was appointed agent to erect a fence around the two hundred foot square to keep animals off the courtyard. In 1881 the court evidently recognized the need for a public facility and ordered that a "neat and commodious" privy be erected on the courthouse yard, the key to be kept in the clerk's office.

Three years later, in a move toward progress the court ordered that the facility be removed from the courtyard. However, it was provided that the city give written authority to place the privy on a certain lot owned by the town to "have and hold for that purpose as long as the court may deem it expedient".

Red Brick courthouse served the county until 1890. Photographs and a more detailed description of the third courthouse may be found in the Ruth Cartwright Huff Memorial Collection at the Comanche Public Library.

VICTORIAN COURTHOUSE

1890 - 1939

In 1890 yet another courthouse was erected in Comanche. Built at a cost of about $65,000, it was considered to be one of the finest in Texas. It was three stories high, had a clock tower, and atop the tower was a statue of Justice, but the most prominent feature of the dome was the clock. The 1890 structure has long been called the Victorian courthouse. In fact, the citizens were so proud of the beautiful building that in 1892, an ordinance was passed prohibiting construction of frame buildings on the square surrounding the courthouse. This idea was a welcome contrast to the scene shown in the photograph of the 1875 courthouse. The records hold another court order that "no person is to sleep in the jury room." This may sound amusing today, but it was evidently aimed at loafers and town characters, always a part of any courthouse locale.

THE STATUE OF JUSTICE

High above the town square atop the clock tower of the 1890 courthouse was a statue of Justice. This particular Justice was not blindfolded as so many are, but her steady gaze did not prevent the figure from becoming the victim of some odd mishaps. The first occurred in 1897. Baxter Bros. New York Cash Store had opened on the east side of the square and a new shipment of rifles had been received. Lurah Baxter Kelly was a clerk in her brothers' store at the time, and reports that Will G. Baxter was demonstrating a rifle. He stepped outside into the daylight for the benefit of his patrons. In the course of his sales talk extolling the merits of the rifle, he said he bet it could "shoot the arm off the lady of Justice." The crowd took this as a dare. Baxter was an excellent salesman and expert marksman. Pretending to rise to the challenge he dramatically took aim, a shot rang out and to his chagrin, the right arm fell off the statue. The figure was molded of lead alloy sheet metal, 3-32" thick, and certainly, everyone in the crowd stood amazed. It was this combination of salesmanship and marksmanship that set the stage for the first unusual occurrence.

Held aloft in the left hand of the figure atop the courthouse was the scale of Justice. Sometimes after the turn of the century the scale was lost. Believed to have been blown off in a high wind, it was never found. We do know that the scale was missing in 1908, at which time, the court ordered the wiring and lighting of the courthouse. A contract was authorized to have the work done for $137.50, and with the coming of electricty, the missing scale was replaced by a light bulb.

Years later, another unusual incident was discovered when the Victorian courthouse was razed to build a new one. Examination of the figure found two bullet holes in the neck, and it had become a haven for a colony of bees. There was much conjecture, but it was never learned how or when this incident happened. The statue of Justice with tell-tale bullet holes, now stands on the grounds of Burks Museum. Lost so long ago, the right arm is thought to have held a sword.

Pictures owned by Burks Museum and W. C. House show crowds gathered on courthouse square at the turn of the century to witness the performance of Colonel T. O. Moore's Ladies Drill Team. A photograph given the Comanche Public Library by Mrs. Sam Hatchett shows the United Confederate Veterans group on the courthouse lawn. Original photos of both the Red Brick and Victorian courthouses are in the collection of the late C. E. Straley.

1940 COURTHOUSE -- South Entrance
Street lamps and flag pole were taken down some years ago.

The 1890 courthouse served the longest of all, nearly fifty years. It is said that when it was torn down, townspeople long accustomed to glancing up at the courthouse clock, created brisk business for local jewelers in sales of watches, and the cleaning and repair of old timepieces. The building was torn down in 1939. When the cornerstone was opened the following items were found: a Bible, a Masonic apron, an American flag, two copper pennies, Confederate money, a minature brown jug, the constitutions of Texas, the United States, and the Masonic Lodge, a history of the Texas Revolution, and enclosed with various publications was a copy of The Comanche Chief, dated June 6, 1891.

1940 COURTHOUSE

In March, 1939, at a regular session of Commissioners Court with Judge R. S. McCharen, County Clerk Mary Fields, and Commissioners F. T. Brandt, L. T. Cunningham, F. L. Little, and O. E. Rippetoe in attendance, a motion carried to authorize issuance of courthouse bonds in the amount of $75,000. Built during the era of the Works Progress Administration, which provided $120,000 toward the cost of the structure, it may some day be known as the "WPA" courthouse. During construction the annex of the old courthouse was left standing as long as possible, then the county offices were moved to the second floors of several buildings on the town square. The fifth courthouse was completed in 1941, and open house was held July 4 of that year for inspection of the new building.

The modern courthouse is built of native stone quarried from the Hugh Lacy farm at Logan's Gap. The only adornment is a pair of handsome stone eagles. They are

In an interview published in the Dallas News, February 6, 1921, copy of which is on file at the Comanche Public Library, Martin Fleming estimated the tree was at least 100 years old, saying it was an old tree when he first saw it in 1854. He also stated that in his youth he found the Comanche Indians as friends. In fact, he often swam with young braves in Indian Creek. Such was not the case by 1858, when the Comanches went on the warpath against ever increasing numbers of white settlers who were usurping their hunting grounds. The marker on Fleming Oak credits the tree with saving young Martin Fleming's life when he " . . . hid behind this tree and saved himself when hostile Indians rode through the grove."

About 1912, when the City Council decided to improve the courthouse square by cutting down the trees, Martin V. Fleming appeared on the scene just as the men fell to with their axes. With stern words and veiled threats "Uncle" Mart managed to save this particular tree.

Again, in 1919, there was talk of cutting down the tree to pave the square, and yet another time Fleming was successful in persuading the workmen to spare the old tree that bears his name today. Since then, the tree has remained and is now considered an asset to the town.

It has become the custom to light the tree during the holiday season as a community Christmas tree.

Fleming Oak is not to be confused with Comanche's placed above the doorways, one at the south entrance and the other at the north portal of the building. The eagles are the work of the late Elmer Webb, a stonecutter, who also supervised the cutting of the building stone.

To carve the eagles, Webb set up a work shed on the town square to house the steam compressor used in addition to the hammer and chisel of his trade. The work took several months and townpeople often stopped to watch the stonecutter create the eagles from the pattern he had drawn.

When the present day courthouse was first built, it had a flag pole on the roof and street lamps on the lawn surrounding the building. These were removed several years ago, and the flag pole was set in the courtyard.

However, repairs and remodeling from time to time, have not changed the general appearance of the 1940 courthouse. In the summer of 1968, the structure was sandblasted, repaired, and sealed to restore and protect the beauty of the native stone. Thus, we are assured of many more years of service from the courthouse that stands in Comanche today.

FLEMING OAK

Always a part of the scene at Comanche, one cannot overlook the historic live oak tree which stands at the southwest corner of courthouse square. In fact, this old tree is all that remains of a grove of live oaks that stood before there was a town. It first caught the eye of Martin V. Fleming in 1854. Fleming, then a youth, camped with his father under its branches on their first night in what is now Comanche County.

hanging tree. The connotation "hanging" tree may have deterred defense of the tree's historic value, and it was cut down in an improvement project at the junction of Farm Roads 590 and 573, about two miles southwest of Comanche. We are fortunate that Martin Fleming chose to defend the old live oak on courthouse square, it is a living reminder of our colorful past.

THE PRESERVATION OF OLD CORA

Of all the Comanche County courthouses, one was lost to a fire, two were torn down and replaced by new building, but the first little log courthouse remains. Future generations will have a monument to our early history as a result of work by a number of people. The efforts to save Old Cora span a number of years. Using the paper published in The Comanche Chief on June 18, 1965, written by Mrs. F. L. Little on the history of Old Cora, here is the story of how the log house was saved from neglect and possible destruction.

When the county seat was moved to Comanche in 1859, the log house was used as a residence by Tom W. Mathews until he sold it in 1873. A son, Mack Mathews, who had been born there wrote a letter to The Comanche Chief in 1938, asking that the old dwelling be preserved as a historical building. His plea brought plans to buy the old house and move it to the municipal park at Lake Eanes. In 1939, J. R. Eanes, and a committee including Ira Clemons, Walter Barret and Wid Spivey solicited donations from businessmen and interested citizens to purchase and move old Cora. The building was bought from Hugh Burks for $300 or $350; and Bob Cox and his helper, Bill Finley were employed to move the old house.

Burks Transfer donated the use of a truck with Glen Norwood as driver, to haul the chimney rocks. Many donated time and labor to restore the log house at the Lake Eanes site. Walter Godfrey and Lavett Neal did the carpentry work and shingled the roof. Using the rocks hauled from Cora, Eaf Snodgrass, Earl Chaney and Charlie Wilson rebuilt the chimney.

Time passed and by 1963, Old Cora was in a bad state of repair due to the lack of a caretaker. Documents stored in the building had been lost or stolen and decay was setting in. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Burks asked permission to move the log house to their museum in Comanche, and in April of 1963, Old Cora was moved again.

Herman Cox, his son Calvin, and Hubert Gossett were hired to move the building and chimney rocks. At the museum site the fireplace and chimney were rebuilt of original stones with help from G. A. Burks, James Bilberry and Al Keller. The mortar was replaced between the split logs by the A. P. Burks and later, they floored the porch and the "dog trot" between the two rooms. The logs are worn and weatherbeaten but Old Cora has its original rafters, windows, and chimney rebuilt of the rocks from the site at Cora.

In 1965, Old Cora was dedicated as a State Historical Building through the efforts of W. I. Dixon, of the Comanche County Historical Survey Committee. Judge Derroll F. Caraway unveiled the plaque and medallion awarded the old building, and a sketch by Comanche artist, Mrs. C. W. Gray. was displayed showing the log house on its site at Cora. Highlight of the dedication ceremony was a history of Old Cora by Mrs. F. L. Little.

To close the dedication, J. C. Wilkerson, Editor of The Comanche Chief, expressed appreciation for the interest and effort in preserving the old courthouse, and especially, for their recognition of its historic value.

Public buildings reflect the growth of a society and the story of the five Comanche County courthouses is but an introduction to the history of the county. There are other tales to be told, and no doubt, there are a number of courthouse stories that remain to be uncovered.

Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham

As a young girl, Margrett was sent on an errand quite a distance from where she lived. After completing her assigned duty, she swung back onto her horse and headed for home. Much to her distress, and a long two miles from her destination, she encountered a hungry, mean looking cougar. Not wasting any time, she urged her horse into a run. The horse was as anxious as Margrett to get away from this large brownish-orange wild American cat. However, with the speed this animal possessed it wasn't long until it had gained on the frightened pair. Margrett was wearing her favorite hat, but she yanked it from her head and with all her might she flung it over her shoulder, hoping to put as much distant between her and the beast as she could. To her delight the cougar stopped to sniff her pretty head cover, and then proceeded to rip it to threads. Her hat only detained the creature long enough for Margrett to gain a short lead. Bounding along with his long strides he was rapidly overtaking her for the second time. Her sweater was the next article of distraction. Margrett's quick thinking in discarding her personal items made it possible for her to arrive home safe. The strip tease probably saved her life.

Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham

Margrett married William Alexander Ham, and he moved her to the wilderness in an area now called Comanche, Comanche County, Texas. He chose an area seven or eight miles northeast of the present town. There weren't many neighbors, and stores were many, many miles away. This area was a favorite spot of the Comanche Indians at the time, and they weren't happy to see homesteaders taking over their land, and cutting down their trees. At first the Indians just tired to scare or intimidate the white settlers. Later they would steal the settlers horses, and scatter their stock. The killings came a few years later.

For their own protection the homesteaders made up shopping lists, and only one man would leave the area to go for supplies at a time. On one occasion Bill (William A. Ham) had left his family alone to do the shopping for the whole area. While he was gone Margrett needed water which she had to get from the Sweetwater Creek, a short distance from the log cabin. Gathering up her children she headed for the creek with her water pail. They were strolling along in the bright sunshine, enjoying the outing, when Margrett noticed bright colored feathers in and sticking out of the ~~scrubs~~ along the path. She calmly gathered her children close to her, and continued on to the creek. Filling her pail with water, they started back slowly along the trail to the cabin. As the small group past, the Indians fell in behind them, staying a short distant away. She told the children to go inside and climb onto the bed, and stay there quietly until the Indians had left. Then she turned, facing the Comanche. With sign language they ask for food. Margrett allowed them into her spotless home, and cooked for them. Although, it was the hardest thing she ever did, she held her tongue while she watched them eat with their hands, throwing her prized dishes around, breaking some, and feeding their dirty dogs on her clean floor.

Much later, to her relief the Comanche left, without hurting her or the children. However, her disgust at the savages disregard of her home was so great, that she cleaned everything with a passion. The floors were washed with lye, before she would allow herself to rest, and relieve the pressure with tears. Her children remember her as a perfectionist.

William (Bill) Alexander Ham

Bill moved his wife to the wilderness in hopes of building a strong, safe home for his coming family. There weren't any towns in the area, so the settlers formed their own town in Comanche County, which had been created out of Bosque and Coryell Counties. The little community was called Little Cora, and a court house was built by the hands of devoted individuals interested in the progress of their County. Little Cora was located in the Southeast part of Comanche County, on the North bank of the South Leon River, and today it is known as the Pettit community.

Trees in the area were used to build the court house, and the first tree to fall for the building was cut down by the hands of William (Bill) Alexander Ham. Cora served as the County Seat, and three terms of District Court were held in Little Cora. There were trials held for theft and murder. Indictments took place for crimes such as unlawfully playing cards, drinking of alcohol on Sunday, having a pistol on his person,

Bill served as the county Judge, and three terms of District Court were held in Little Cora. There were trials held for theft and murder. Indictments took place for crimes such as unlawfully playing cards, discharge of pistol on Sunday, having a pistol on his person, rudely displaying a pistol in a public place, seriously threatening to take the life of another, disturbing a congregation gathered for religious worship, and etc. The little court house was full of various activities that were taking place, but it stood strong.

When Hamilton was created, part was taken from Comanche County, and that left Cora on the Border of the two Counties. When this happened the County Seat was moved to the center of the county in the new city of Comanche on 18 July 1859. The original log courthouse building stayed in Cora, because for a couple more years the town was important. Soon the business and church all moved to Comanche, leaving Little Cora behind.

Tom W. Mathews family bought all the land around the old courthouse, and converted it into a residence. In 1938, J.R. Eanes wrote to the newspaper, the "Comanche Chief," asking that the old dwelling where J.R. was born, be preserved as a historical building. In 1939 a committee was formed and donations were given. Little Cora was becoming Old Cora by this time. The old courthouse was bought, moved and repaired, and it sat with prestige once more. Visitors stopped in on their way for a picnic at Lake Eanes Park.

From neglect, once more Old Cora's structure was weakening, and in 1963 Mr. and Mrs. A.P. Burks asked if they could move the proud old building to their property in Comanche. The worn and weather-beaten logs were replaced, but the original Old Cora remained untouched. Old Cora was dedicated as a State Historical Building in 1965.

It wasn't until 1983 that the County Commissioners finally appointed a special committee to once more give Old Cora the attention she deserved. The Texas Historical Commission approved the move of Old Cora to the southwest corner of the townsquare, near the Fleming Oak. Old Cora was again restored, and stands proud, for she served the county well from 1856 to 1859.

William (Bill) Alexander Ham

Bill was an active Mason or Freemason, and worked on their projects. The school system of Comanche was establishment in early 1871. The Police Court organized the county into five school districts on January 30, 1871. At the same time the Police Court was acting, Comanche Masonic Lodge No. 316 was also preparing for the education of Comanche's youth, In the spring of 1871 the Lodge purchased ground for the building of a school, and the following spring construction was begun. The building was occupied in the fall of 1872. The first board of trustees, all member of Comanche Lodge No. 316, was composed of J.M. Holmsley, Albert Sowell, P.W. Gravis, Nathan Yarbrough, and James G. Hardin. It was Peter Gravis that was the connecting link between the Masonic Lodge and the county in establishing education in Comanche. Tale MEM I

Margrett Emily Martin's as a young girl was sent on an erron or something like that. She was on horse back on her way home when she encountered a cougar. She put her house into a run headed the two miles home. Finally after the cougar was about to catch up with her she pulled off her hat and throw it in back of her. The cougar stopped to smell and tear the hat to threats. Margrett rode ~~on~~. This time as the cougar was about to catch up she took off her sweater and throw it. The cougar again stopped and torn it up. Margrett finally made it home safe. The strip tease probably

AS A YOUNG GIRL, MARGRETT WAS SENT ON AN ERRAND QUITE A DISTANCE FROM WHERE SHE LIVED. AFTER COMPLETING HER ASSIGNED DUTY, SHE SWUNG BACK ONTO HER HORSE AND HEADED FOR HOME. MUCH TO HER DISTRESS, AND A LONG TWO MILES FROM HER DESTINATION, SHE ENCOUNTERED A HUNGRY, MEAN LOOKING COUGAR. NOT WASTING ANY TIME, SHE URGED HER HORSE INTO A RUN. THE HORSE WAS AS ANXIOUS AS MARGRETT TO GET AWAY FROM THIS LARGE BROWNISH-ORANGE WILD AMERICAN CAT. HOWEVER, WITH THE SPEED THIS ANIMAL POSSESSED IT WASN'T LONG UNTIL IT HAD GAINED ON THE FRIGHTENED PAIR. MARGRETT WAS WEARING HER FAVORITE HAT, BUT SHE YANKED IT FROM HER HEAD ANYWAY. WITH ALL HER MIGHT SHE FLUNG IT OVER HER SHOULDER, HOPING TO DISTRACT THE BEAST SO SHE COULD GET AWAY. TO HER DELIGHT THE COUGAR STOPPED TO SNIFF HER PRETTY HEAD COVER, AND THEN PROCEEDED TO RIP IT TO THREADS. HER HAT ONLY DETAINED THE CREATURE LONG ENOUGH FOR MARGRETT TO GAIN A SHORT LEAD. BOUNDING ALONG WITH HIS LONG STRIDES HE WAS RAPIDLY OVERTAKING HER. HER SWEATER WAS THE NEXT ARTICLE OF DISTRACTION. MARGRETT'S QUICK THINKING IN DISCARDING HER PERSONAL ITEMS MADE IT POSSIBLE FOR HER TO ARRIVE HOME SAFE. THE STRIP TEASE PROBABLY SAVED HER LIFE.

MARGRETT EMELY (MARTIN) HAM

MARGRETT MARRIED WILLIAM HAM, AND HE MOVED HER TO THE WILDERNESS IN AN AREA NOW CALLED COMANCHE, COMANCHE COUNTY, TEXAS. THERE WEREN'T MANY NEIGHBORS, AND STORES WERE MANY, MANY MILES AWAY. THIS AREA WAS ALSO A FAVORITE SPOT OF THE COMANCHE INDIANS, AND THEY WEREN'T HAPPY TO SEE HOMESTEADERS TAKING OVER THEIR LAND. AT FIRST THEY DIDN'T KILL THE SETTLERS, BUT THEY WOULD ROB THEM OF THEIR HORSES, AND SCATTER THEIR LIFE STOCK. FOR THEIR OWN PROTECTION THE HOMESTEADERS MADE UP THEIR SHOPPING LISTS, AND ONLY ONE MAN WOULD LEAVE THE AREA TO GO FOR SUPPLIES AT A TIME. ON ONE OCCASION BILL (WILLIAM HAM,) HAD LEFT HIS FAMILY ALONE TO DO THE SHOPPING FOR ALL THE HOMESTEADERS IN THE AREA. WHILE HE WAS GONE, MARGARET NEEDED WATER WHICH SHE HAD TO GET FROM THE SWEETWATER CREEK, A SHORT DISTANCE FROM THE LOG CABIN. GATHERING UP HER CHILDREN SHE HEADED FOR THE CREEK WITH HER PAIL. THEY WERE STROLLING ALONG IN THE SUNSHINE, ENJOYING THE OUTING, WHEN MARGRETT NOTICED FEATHERS IN THE SCRUBS ALONG THE PATH. SHE CALMLY GATHERED HER CHILDREN CLOSE TO HER AND CONTINUED ON TO THE CREEK. SHE FILLED THE PAIL WITH WATER AND WALKED SLOWLY BACK TO THE CABIN. THE INDIANS FELL IN BEHIND THIS BRAVE WOMAN, FOLLOWING AT A SHORT DISTANCE. WHEN THE GROUP ARRIVED AT THE CABIN, MARGARETT SENT HER CHILDREN INTO THE CABIN TO SIT ON THE BED, BEFORE FACING THE COMANCHE. WITH SIGN LANGUAGE THE INDIANS GAINED HER UNDERSTANDING THAT THEY WANTED FOOD. SHE ALLOWED THEM INTO HER SPOTLESS HOME, AND COOKED FOR THEM. ALTHOUGH, IT WAS THE HARDEST THING SHE EVER DID, SHE HELD HER TONGUE WHILE SHE WATCHED THEM EAT, THROWING HER PRIZED DISHES AROUND, BREAKING SOME, AND FEEDING THEIR DIRTY DOGS ON HER CLEAN FLOOR. MUCH LATER, TO HER RELIEF THE INDIANS WITHOUT HURTING HER OR THE CHILDREN. HOWEVER, HER DISGUST AT THE SAVAGES DISREGARD OF HER HOME WAS SO GREAT, THAT SHE CLEANED EVERYTHING WITH A FIERY. THE FLOORS WERE EVEN WASHED WITH LYE, BEFORE SHE WOULD ALLOW HERSELF TO REST, AND RELIEVE THE PRESSURE WITH TEARS.
